For MC:

First, I want let you know that I'm hard of hearing and I wear my hearing aid. My first language is ASL (American Sign Language) and second is English. I have a great team who always support me to do Energetic MC for Reception, announcements, crowd engagement and reception timeline management.

Note for MC:

Head up; If the clients book me to fly to different states for a Wedding and you need MC, it will be an additional cost to bring one of my team to go wedding together and do MC for us. Please discuss with DJ Deaf Tunez for more details if the clients still interested to book us.

Also, if the clients have a family or friend to do MC for you, there's no additional cost. However, having MC for the wedding reception help to have high energy to keep the crowd entertained or engaged with games, jokes, dance, and music. Hiring the best MC will help worth making your wedding a memorable one! They decide!

How much for deposit fee if you hired DJ Deaf Tunez?

After we signed an agreement contract, it will be first half deposit to secure the date and pay the rest of the balance before the events.

More info:

If the clients like to meet me in a public place and discuss the plan and contract before hiring me, we can do that!

Lastly, I do have DJ license, liability insurance, equipment includes speakers, wireless microphone, turntables and Uplights. Let me know if you have any question, I'll be happily to answer!
