For MC:

First, I want let you know that I'm hard of hearing and I wear my hearing aid. My first language is ASL (American Sign Language) and second is English. I have a great team who always support me to do Energetic MC for Reception, announcements, crowd engagement and reception timeline management.

Note for MC:

Head up; If the clients book me to fly to different states for a Wedding and you need MC, it will be an additional cost to bring one of my team to go wedding together and do MC for us. Please discuss with DJ Deaf Tunez for more details if the clients still interested to book us.

Would DJ Deaf Tunez able to travel?

The Answer is Yes, DJ Deaf Tunez is able to travel.

How much for deposit fee if you hired DJ Deaf Tunez?

After we signed an agreement contract, it will be 30 percent to secure the date and pay the rest of the balance before the Wedding Day.

More Info:

If the clients like to meet me in a public place or a facetime or Zoom meeting while discussing the wedding plan and contract before hiring me, we can do that!

Also, if the clients have a list of the songs for the first dance, father & daughter dance, party, etc., that's great! We can work on that. It's their wedding! It's my job to make sure the clients feel satisfied with our service and make sure everything goes smoothly. Lastly, I do have DJ license, liability insurance, equipment includes speakers, wireless microphone, turntables and Uplights. Let me know if you have any question, I'll be happily to answer!
